Re: Judicial Conduct Board File No. 2020-189

Dear Attorney Christy:

The Judicial Conduct Board has concluded review of your complaint. After thorough investigation, the Board voted to issue a Letter of Counsel disposition.

The Letter of Counsel is the Board's most serious form of private disposition short of filing formal charges in the Court of Judicial Discipline. The procedure requires a judicial officer to present himself before Chief Counsel to sign and receive a Letter of Counsel about the complained of conduct and embodies the Board's official expression of concern and disapproval.

Please know the Board viewed this matter seriously and addressed it in the manner it deemed appropriate considering its investigatory findings and all facts and circumstances. The Board's decision to issue a Letter of Counsel is final and there is no appeal process.

The Board thanks you for bringing this matter to its attention and appreciates your concern for the integrity and independence of the judiciary. As the Letter of Counsel has been issued, this matter is now officially closed and the complaint has been dismissed.

Very truly yours,
