

Voting with a Criminal Conviction in Pennsylvania

General Election Day is Tuesday, November 8, 2022.

You must register to vote by Monday, October 24, 2022.

You can register online at: www.votes.pa.gov.

All voters must be U.S. citizens for at least one month, be at least 18 years old on Election Day, and have been a resident of Pennsylvania for at least 30 days before the election. Here's what people need to know about voting with a criminal conviction in Pennsylvania.

Who is allowed to register and vote?

- People in jail or prison who have been convicted of misdemeanors (must vote with an absentee ballot)
- People who are under house arrest (must vote with an absentee ballot)
- People who are on probation or on parole
- People who are on parole or probation and living in a halfway house or community corrections center (must vote with an absentee ballot; cannot use the address of the halfway house as their registration address; must use previous or future address)
- People being held in jail while they are waiting to go to trial (must vote with an absentee ballot)

Who is not eligible to register and vote?

- People who are in prison or jail because of a felony conviction and who won't be released before the election
- People who have been convicted of violating Pennsylvania election laws within the past four years

If you are already registered to vote, you do not need to do anything to regain your voting rights after you have served your sentence for a felony conviction. If you are not registered or you need to update your address, you must do so by Monday, October 24, 2022. You can register to vote and update your personal information at www.votes.pa.gov.

This information only applies to Pennsylvania. Other states have different laws.

If you or someone you know is having trouble registering to vote or being allowed to vote, please contact the ACLU of Pennsylvania at 877-745-ACLU (2258).
